

ORAL QUESTIONS FOR DAN CANDIDATES

EE DAN SHIM SA

1. What is the motivation for the name of the "Chil Song" Hyungs?

Answer: "Buk Du Chil Song (Big dipper)" means "North head seven star". The North star which was of great importance to early navigators. There are 7 hyungs in the Chil Song series. Each hyung has its own characteristic. Kwan Jang Nim Hwang Kee created the Chil Song hyungs and introduced them to help to guide us toward becoming better Moo Do practitioners.

2. What is the literal meaning of the words "^{Northern}Neh Ga Ryu" and "^{Southern}Weh Ga Ryu"?

Answer: Neh (Inside/Internal), Ga (House), Ryu (Style).
Weh Outside/External). Ga (House), Ryu (Style).

3. What is the meaning of "Ryu Pa"?

Answer: Literally, "River flows down divided", it refers to the natural process of change which occurs as an art is practiced by human beings. The Kwan Jang Nim stresses as should the candidates, that this is an unintentional process and it is not desirable to try to introduce impurities into the art.

4. What does "Neh Khang Weh Yu" mean?

Answer: Neh (Inside), Khang (Strong / Hard), Weh (Outside), Yu (Gentle).

5. What is the name of Yuk Ro Cho Dan hyung ? And it's meaning.

Answer: "Du Moon". Du (Top / Great), Moon (Gate).

6. What have you experienced from Yuk Ro Hyungs and how have they helped you in your personal development?

Answer: Personal. However, following terms should be discussed by candidates; Neh Gong influence, Interaction with nature, Flow of energy...

7. What is the "Moo Yei Do Bo Tong Ji"?

Answer: The Moo Yei Do Bo Tong Ji was published approximately 300 years ago. It is the only Korean martial art book known to have been written in that time period. It is the oldest and most valuable historical documentation of Korean martial arts.

8. Why are you required to perform the Ssang Bal Ahp Cha Nut Ki break? What is the significance of this requirement and why?

Answer: At E Dan the practitioner is required to perform at a certain degree of proficiency with each side of his/her body. The Ssang Bal Chagi requires the practitioner to perform this task simultaneously while several feet off the ground. This is a good test of this requirement. The E Dan should be able to not only perform well with both sides of their body, but split their energy and focus all of their intent to two target areas at any given time

ORAL QUESTIONS FOR DAN CANDIDATES

9. Explain the significance of the Dan Bon.

Answer: The Dan Bon is the number assigned to the Soo Bahk Do practitioner once he /she has achieved the rank of Cho Dan in the Moo Duk Kwan. It clearly defines the seniority and history of the practitioner within the Moo Duk Kwan. Kwan Jang Nim Hwang Kee is the only person who assigns Dan Bons and ensures that they are recorded in the Kwan Jok Bu (Book of Dan numbers).

10. What is and who are the members of Technical Advisory Committee of the Federation ?

Answer: The TAC is responsible for providing all the technical, historical, traditional, and philosophical guidance of the Kwan Jang Nim to the Federation's membership under the chairmanship of Hwang, Hyun Chul Sa Bom Nim. Members of the TAC are appointed by the Kwan Jang Nim Hwang Kee. The TAC is comprised of the following Ko Dan Ja:

1998 Chung, Hwa Yong Sa Bom Nim
1998 Seiberlich, Lawrence Sa Bom Nim
1998 Hanke, Russell Sa Bom Nim
1998 Martinov, Victor Sa Bom Nim

11. What is the role of the Board of Directors? Who is the Board member elected by you in your region.

Answer: The Board is responsible for providing all administrative services necessary to ensure that the TAC can achieve its objectives. The Board is not only responsible for a business administration to the management of the Federation but moreover to the membership. As elected Board members their representation should be on behalf of the membership.

12. What is the literal meaning of each word in "Yong Gi" (or other 8 Key concepts)?

Answer: Yong (Brave), Gi (Energy)
Chung (Clean/Clear), Shin (God), Tong (Govern), Il (One/First)
In (Endure), Nae (Patience)
Chung (Right), Jik (Straight)
Kyum (Humble), Son (Humble).
Him (Power), Jo (Manage), Chung (Right).
Shin (Relaxation/Expend), Chook (Tention/Shrink).
Wan (Loose/Slowness), Gup (Hurry/Fast).

13. Please describe the process you utilized to prepare for this E Dan testing.

14. How will your role and/or responsibilities change if you are promoted to E Dan?